BLM-54

Assessing Active Listening

Active Listening Skills and Strategies Students' names ☛ Check the observed behaviours
Demonstrates attentiveness: • looks at speaker • thinks about and tries to understand what the speaker is saying • controls personal activity level • encourages the presenter with non-verbal cues (nodding, smiling)
Shows appreciation for others' ideas
Recalls relevant information
Clarifies ideas
Provides feedback
Asks relevant questions												